(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHS, VA., February 4.—Frank Fowlkes, a colored laborer for Russell Fowlkes, a colored Jaborer for Russell and Ollyer, a firm engaged in doublo-tracking the Southern Railway from Whasap to Galveston, was murdered last night in a camp two miles south of this place by Herbert Stone, James Brarran, alias Steambow, and Herman Deese. The three murderers went to Hurts, the next station, and boasted of their prowess. They left there for Danville on a freight train, but were subsequently captured in Danville, and have confessed their crime. This is the third man shot in this camp since last October. Citizens are very indigment, and threaten to exterminate the camp unless better order can be maintained there. The trouble came upower a woman, and resulted fatally for Fowlkes. An inquest held by Justice Dillard brought out the facts as above.
